White Lake board will get construction update

Aug. 22, 2012

The White Lake board of education will receive an update on the construction of its new community recreation center and fill a guidance counselor position when it meets on Thursday.

The board will convene at 6 p.m. in the school library.

Informational items will include an update by project manager Doc Smith on the recreation center project, which has a goal of having the new gymnasium area ready for basketball games in November.

The board will also get an update on playground renovations, district and school board goals, with action later in the evening, and staff inservice plans.

In personnel items, the board is expected to hire a schoolwide guidance counselor; approve the resignation of the 7-12 science teacher; and enter into a shared service agreement with the Elcho school district for a foreign language teacher.

The board will also:

—adopt policies on a drug-free workplace, employee tobacco, alcohol and/or other controlled substance use, and pre-employment drug testing.

—act on school handbooks for students, transportation, support staff and teachers.

—and, in closed session at the conclusion of the evening, discuss 2012-13 staffing.
